Disagree Agreeably:

It's okay to have different opinions,
just express disagreements respectfully.

"I see your point, and I think..."

"I understand where you're coming from, however..."
This keeps the conversation constructive and respectful.

Positive Presence:

Use confident and positive body language.

Maintain eye contact, nod,
and be mindful of your facial expressions.
This creates a friendly and engaging atmosphere.

Share the Spotlight:

Ensure everyone has a chance to speak

Listen actively when others are talking and wait for your turn. This shows respect and encourages positive relationships.
